

Tuesday, October 27, 2020

The U.S. Census Bureau released a survey that about 60 million American households are expecting an income loss due to COVID-19 this month. Be sure to keep earmarking some monies for retirement. Yes, you need money today or the next couple of years, but frankly, you still should look out 10, 20, 30 years into the future. Remember to keep some focus on the long-term.